

HOME INSTRUCTION AND DISTANCE LEARNING

Home Instruction

The Division may provide a program of home instruction for students who are registered and in regular attendance in a Pembina Trails School prior to their short term absence, as approved by the Superintendent or designate.

Distance Learning

Students may enroll in such courses only with the prior approval of the principal or designate.

Credit will be awarded for the successful completion of such courses when the course is judged equivalent to that offered in the regular school program and the work is done under the supervision of a certified teacher.

Students enrolled in courses taken through distance learning must adhere to Policy IJNDC, Technology Acceptable Use Agreement for Students.
