

Potentially Hazardous Foods include any food that consists in whole or in part of milk or milk products, eggs, meat, poultry, fish, shellfish (edible mollusca and crustacea), or any other ingredients, in a form capable of supporting growth of infectious and/or toxigenic microorganisms.

Definition is taken from the Manitoba Health Department website.